Should you be made an offer to join ENBS and you accept, you are agreeing to the terms and conditions laid out in this policy.

It also sets out the potential consequences if you fail to make payment of Course fees, which includes ENBS' ability to pause or terminate attendance or registration, and this contract, and/or to withhold awards. In addition, non-payment of tuition fees and/or any other course related fees, could result in ENBS taking legal action against you to recover outstanding amounts.

ENBS also reserves the right to refuse the student to continue attending and engaging with the course and School, until up-to-date payments are made. Where an account remains in debt for two or more terms, the student's place at the School may be terminated, and we may withhold any references and/or withdraw sponsorship of a Student Visa (if applicable). This applies in addition to our right to terminate this Contract under Clause 9 of this policy.
- 3.6. Should you experience any difficulty with meeting payment deadlines, please contact the School's Finance Manager at enbsaccounts@enbschool.org.uk immediately. You will be responsible for paying the costs we incur in recovering, or attempting to recover, any unpaid fees or supplemental charges from you (including reasonable legal costs).

4. Acceptance Fee

- 4.1. All successful applicants will be required to pay the £200.00 acceptance fee to accept their place on the course. The acceptance fee is in addition to the tuition fees. The acceptance fee must be paid within 14 days from the date a formal offer is sent to you. A place at the School has not been formally accepted unless the applicant has paid the acceptance fee and completed the relevant forms / paperwork, as instructed by the School within the required deadline(s).

- 4.2. An acceptance fee is non-refundable, unless an applicant decides to withdraw their acceptance within 14 days of making the acceptance fee payment. To secure a refund, the sent date of your notification of withdrawal must fall within 14 days of the date that payment was received by ENBS.
- 4.3. ENBS, at its discretion may agree to a payment plan for the sum of the acceptance fee under exceptional circumstances. If you have any questions or concerns regarding the acceptance fee, please contact enrolment@enbschool.org.uk or by calling +44 (0)20 7376 7076.

Students eligible for a Dance and Drama Award (DaDA) will not be required to pay a deposit but should send instead a completed DaDa self-assessment form to us within the timescale outlined in 5.1. If you submit a DaDa application form but are declared ineligible for any funding, then the deposit becomes immediately due to the School and payment will be expected within 14 days of the date of our email informing you of DaDa ineligibility.
- 5.3. The School will not normally consider requests for Course Deposit waivers that do not fall within the above definitions, except where it is satisfied that there are reasonable and justified exceptional grounds to do so.
- 5.4. Details of how to pay the Course Deposit will be set out in the Offer Letter / email to successful applicants when offered a place on the course.
- 5.5. If you fail to pay the required deposit by the stated deadline(s), the School reserves the right to withdraw your offer.
- 5.6. The deposit is fully refundable should the applicant decide to withdraw within 14 days of accepting their place, or within the first 14 days after their start date on the Programme. Notification of withdrawing must be sent in writing, via email to enrolment@enbschool.org.uk
- 5.7. The deposit forms part of the full tuition fees and therefore will be deducted from the tuition fee invoiced for the final term of the student's enrolment.
- 5.8. Should an applicant wish to request a refund; they should email enrolment@enbschool.org.uk at their earliest convenience. Applicants will also be eligible for a course deposit refund if we do not permit the applicant to enrol at the School in any of the following circumstances:

- 7.1. For new students enrolling in the 2026-27 academic year, should you decide to withdraw from the course, you may still be liable for any tuition fees and/or other charges which are outstanding.
- 7.2. Fees charged will be calculated based upon the "Withdrawal Notification Date", on which the School receives a formal notification of withdrawal. Once a student has enrolled, this must be via the "Change to Studies & Withdrawal Form" available from enrolment@enbschool.org.uk. The student's actual "Withdrawal Date" will be the later of the "Withdrawal Notification Date" and the student's last date of attendance at the School.

7.5. In cases where a student's withdrawal date falls after the period of tuition fee liability above, a whole term's tuition fee will also be payable for each additional term, attended whole or in part, up to and including the term in which the withdrawal date falls.

8. Continuing students withdrawing from the course

- 8.1. For continuing students (students who enrolled prior to the 2026-27 academic year), should you decide to withdraw from the course, you will still be liable for any tuition fees and/or other charges which are outstanding.

- 8.5. In cases where a student's withdrawal date falls after the period of tuition fee liability above, a whole term's tuition fee will also be payable for each additional term, attended whole or in part, up to and including the term in which the withdrawal date falls.

9. Debts and re-enrolment

- 9.1. If you do not pay tuition fees in accordance with these terms, the School reserves the right to: cancel or withdraw your place on the course; and/or suspend or withdraw you from the course; and/or to withhold awards until any fee debt is paid or cancelled.
- 9.2. Any student who has not paid their tuition fees in full for one academic session cannot progress onto the next year of the course.

9.3. Final year students may not be able to graduate if they have any outstanding tuition or course related fees owing to the School.

10. Variations to terms for individual students

10.1. Variations to these terms, including variations to instalment plans and arrangements or decisions in relation to student debts and student hardship, must be formally negotiated in writing. The School will designate a nominated officer to oversee and manage such arrangements. The School will negotiate any variations with you via the nominated officer.

11. Variations to terms in the case of the School making changes to Programme delivery

11.1. Should the School make changes to Programme delivery, beyond the definitions of normal potential practice as documented in the contract, such that:

- the overall aims and objectives of the programme are changed fundamentally; and/or
- the principal delivery location(s) are moved outside Greater London; and/or
- the Programme is no longer validated to lead to conferment of the TCL Diploma(s); and/or
- the Programme is no longer offered in a Full Time in person mode, beyond any temporary variation in delivery mode lasting for a maximum of 1 term or the equivalent in School working days; and/or
- the Programme is no longer offered to enrolled students, then, in addition to the circumstances at detailed at 7. and 8. above, in the case of candidates and enrolled students who withdraw from the Programme so that their withdrawal date is up to 14 days after the above changes first taking effect in term-time, their liability for tuition fees will end at the conclusion of the most recent complete term where delivery preceded these changes and their deposit and any tuition fees paid in advance for terms subsequent to that most recent complete term will be refunded.

Candidates and enrolled students, whose withdrawal date is not prior to the expiry of the 14 days immediately following the above changes taking effect in term-time, will be deemed to have accepted the changes to the programme of study. Their right to withdraw and associated tuition fee liability will thus revert to that detailed at 7 and 8 above.

11.2. In addition, if the Programme is no longer available to candidates, those candidates may withdraw from their acceptance of a place and receive a full refund of all acceptance fees, deposits and tuition fees paid to the School.

12. Refunds

12.1. In cases where a refund is due, the refund will be made by the School as follows:

12.1.1. Acceptance fee: within 14 days of the date we receive the student's written withdrawal from their place;

12.1.2. Deposit and Tuition fees: the date we receive the student's written withdrawal from their place or, once the Programme has started, the later of withdrawal date and withdrawal notification date.
